A Gift to Our Special Contribution Funds Helps the Historic Hope Foundation Grow!

The Historic Hope Foundation also manages a number of special funds which support the mission and operations of the Foundation:

The Jack and Margaret Tyler Leadership Circle. Established in 2001, proceeds from this fund support the daily operations of Hope Plantation.

The Historic Hope Endowment. Established in 1981 by the Friends of Hope Committee, proceeds from this fund are used for staff salaries.

Margaret Long Tyler Endowment. Established in 1991 through a bequest of the late Mrs. Tyler, a matching gift from her family and contributions in her memory, proceeds from the fund are used for the completion and conservation of the reconstituted private library of Governor David Stone.

John E. Tyler II Endowment. Established in 1993 on honor of Mr. Tyler, proceeds from the fund are used for operating expenses at Historic Hope Plantation.

Project Development Fund. Proceeds from this fund are used specifically to develop and continue education and mission-related projects, such as:

Collections. Contributions are used to obtain the most representative pieces of regional craftsmanship to add to the outstanding Hope Collections and to provide for continuing conservation practices for the collections.

Education Programs. Funds are used for continued development of educational programs in conjunction with Bertie County schools and other educational institutions.

Historic Hope Research Library. Funds will be used for development of an extensive research library focusing on Governor Stone, Hope Plantation, and history of the Roanoke-Chowan Region.

Landscaping and Gardens. Funds will be used for ongoing research and development of the grounds and gardens at Historic Hope Plantation.

Archaeology. Funds are needed to support continuing archaeological efforts at Hope Plantation, including location and excavation of slave quarters, outbuildings, and other artifacts.
