A Gift to Our Special Contribution Funds Helps the Historic Hope Foundation Grow!

The Historic Hope Foundation manages a number of special funds which support the mission and operations of the Foundation. The proceeds from each of these funds are used in the following ways:

The Jack and Margaret Tyler Leadership Circle - Established in 2001 to support the daily operations of Hope Plantation.

The Historic Hope Endowment - Established in 1981 by the Friends of Hope Committee for staff salaries.

Margaret Long Tyler Endowment - Established in 1991 through a bequest of the late Mrs. Tyler, a matching gift from her family and contributions in her memory for the completion and conservation of the reconstituted private library of Governor David Stone.

John E. Tyler II Endowment - Established in 1993 on honor of Mr. Tyler for the operating expenses at Hope Plantation.

Project Development Fund - Develop and continue education and mission-related projects, such as:

Collections - obtaining the most representative pieces of regional craftsmanship to add to the outstanding Hope Collections and to provide for continuing conservation practices for the collections.

Education Programs - continuing development of educational programs in conjunction with Bertie County schools and other educational institutions.

Historic Hope Research Library - developing an extensive research library focusing on Governor Stone, Hope Plantation, and history of the Roanoke-Chowan Region.

Landscaping and Gardens - ongoing research and development of the grounds and gardens at Hope Plantation.

Archaeology - continuing archaeological efforts at Hope Plantation, including location and excavation of slave quarters, outbuildings, and other artifacts.

Yes, I would like to help Historic Hope Plantation grow! Please accept my gift.
